MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Clandestine Services, Section D

SUBJECT : Recruitment of GS-07 Intelligence Officer

1. We have an immediate need for an Intelligence Officer, GS-07, at one of our overseas stations. The qualifications desired are as follows:

(a) He should be a college graduate preferably with a degree in geography or geology.

(b) He should have had Military experience preferably in Military Intelligence.

(c) It would be desirable if he had had experience at Cartography and Photo-Interpretation.

(d) He should have better than average intelligence and have demonstrated his ability to do basic research.

(e) He should be able to give oral briefings.

2. The candidate, if married, must not have more than two children as the housing facilities are inadequate for a larger family.

3. The person selected must undergo two to three weeks of special training in Headquarters before being sent overseas. We need him in place in the first week in January.

4. We will appreciate your recommending a candidate as soon as possible who can come close to the qualifications we have spelled out above.
